Welcome

Prelude

Opening Prayer

Come to us, God, source of every blessing,
and tune our lips to sing your praise.

Not because we have to but because we sincerely want to,
not because we are afraid, but because we are full of gratitude.

Come to us, God, source of every blessing,
and tune our lips to sing your praise.

Not so that we might gain some advantage over other people, not so that we might try and buy our way into heavenly favors.

Not because you need our praise to keep you happy,
not because our songs are sweeter than any others.

Come to us, God, source of every blessing,
tune our lips to sing your praise.

Not in order that we may prove more righteous, than our neighbors, not in order to make our church appear more worthy than any other.

Not because our words will impress you by their wisdom,
not because we might be damned if we fail to get it right:

Come to us, God, source of every blessing,
and tune our lips to sing your praise.

Come to us, God, source of every blessing
and tune our whole lives to sing your praise!

Amen!

“Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing”

No. 400, The United Methodist Hymnal (1989)

Come, thou Fount of every blessing,
tune my heart to sing thy grace;
streams of mercy, never ceasing,
call for songs of loudest praise.

Teach me some melodious sonnet,
sung by flaming tongues above.
Praise the mount! I'm fixed upon it, mount of thy redeeming love.

Here I raise mine Ebenezer;
hither by thy help I'm come;
and I hope, by thy good pleasure,
safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger,
wandering from the fold of God;
he, to rescue me from danger,
interposed his precious blood.

O to grace how great a debtor daily I'm constrained to be!
Let thy goodness, like a fetter,
bind my wandering heart to thee.
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it, prone to leave the God I love;
here's my heart, O take and seal it,
seal it for thy courts above.

“Sibling Rivalries (and blessings)”

Pastor Jacob

“When Cain Killed Abel”

No 2135, The Faith We Sing (2001)

When Cain killed Abel in a fight,
And Jacob stole another's right,
When Joseph's brothers gave him chase,
God wept and mourned their fall from grace.

In every family, small or great,
When jealousy twists love to hate,
And rivals turn to enemies,
God weeps at our hostilities.

And when in church and world today
Such feelings still come into play,
When brothers, sisters stand apart,
God weeps for every broken heart.

Good Christians, join in God's lament,
Weep now and mourn, be penitent,
And pray to God: Forgive us all.
Restore us as before the fall.

Concerns and Prayers

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, forever.
Amen.

Offering

Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
praise him, all creatures here below;
praise him above, ye heavenly host;
praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Prayer

“Sent Forth by God’s Blessing”

No. 664, The United Methodist Church (1989)

Sent forth by God’s blessing, our true faith confessing, the people of God from this dwelling take leave.

The service is ended, O, now be extended the fruits of our worship in all who believe.
The seed of the teaching, receptive souls reaching,
shall blossom in action for God and for all.
God’s grace did invite us, and love shall unite us to work for God’s kingdom and answer the call.

With praise and thanksgiving to God ever living,
the tasks of our everyday life we will face.
Our faith ever sharing, in love ever caring,
embracing God’s children, of each tribe and race.
With your grace you feed us, with your light now lead us;
unite us as one in this life that we share.
Then may all the living with praise and thanksgiving
give honor to Christ and his name which we bear.

Get Connected

The Franklin United Methodist Church uses Realm, an online database software, to better communicate with and connect people into the life of the church. It is simple and easy to use!

Every person in the church gets a unique profile. Your profile enables you to RSVP to events (including volunteer opportunities), track your giving, update your contact information, change your family details, and replace that outdated directory photo. And, most importantly, it allows the church to communicate better with you.

You can sign up to access your profile by going to <https://onrealm.org/FranklinUMC/Account/Register>.

Already signed up? You can log-in by going to <https://onrealm.org/FranklinUMC>.
