CALL TO WORSHIP

It was certainly our sickness that he carried, and our sufferings that he bore, but we thought him afflicted, struck down by God and tormented.

He was pierced because of our transgressions and crushed because of our inequities.

He bore the punishment that made us whole; by his wounds we are healed.

Like sheep we had all wandered away, each going our own way, but the Lord has laid on him the inequity of us all.

“Hallelujah! What a Savior”

No. 165, The United Methodist Hymnal (1989)

LITANY OF REMEMBRANCE

Let us remember Jesus: who, though rich, became poor and dwelt among us, who was mighty indeed, healing the sick and the troubled, who, as a teacher to his disciples, was their companion and servant.

May we ever be grateful for Jesus the Christ and what he has done for us.

Let us remember Jesus: who prayed for the forgiveness of those who rejected him and for the perfecting of those who received him, who loved all people, and prayed for them, even if they denied and rejected him who hated sin because he knew the cost of pride and selfishness, of cruelty and hatred, both to people and to God.

May we ever be grateful for Jesus the Christ and what he has done for us.

Let us remember Jesus, who humbled himself, obedient unto the cross. God has exalted him who has redeemed us from the bondage of sin and given us new freedom.

May we ever be grateful for Jesus the Christ and what he has done and continues to do for us.
